

Press release

The world of Ratatouille comes to Disneyland Paris in 2014

Next summer, Disneyland Paris will unveil a major new attraction and mini-land inspired by the Oscar-winning Disney•Pixar film Ratatouille. The film, directed by Brad Bird, tells the tale of Rémy, a young rat who has amazing talents in the kitchen and dreams of one day becoming a great chef. This leads to a fun but perilous journey that eventually lands him as the head chef of one of the most famous restaurants in Paris. Now Rémy has arrived at Walt Disney Studios Park to share his culinary delights and crazy adventures with the entire family.

On the attraction *Ratatouille: L'Aventure Totale de Rémy, guests will shrink down to the size of a rat and join Rémy and his friends as they scurry through the kitchen, dining room, and walls of Gusteau's famous Parisian restaurant, all the while trying to avoid the nemesis from the film, Chef Skinner. This first of its kind Disney attraction will immerse guests into an animated world like never before as they experience what it's like to be a rat in a human sized world.

The attraction is located in a new corner of Toon Studio that's been transformed into a Ratatouille-inspired version of the City of Light. In addition to the attraction, this mini-land also features a shop, *Chez Marianne Souvenirs de Paris, and a rat-scale themed table service restaurant, *Bistrot Chez Rémy. The restaurant, which is the only one of its kind across Disney Parks worldwide, is directly adjacent to the attraction and serves the "little chef's" famous dish, ratatouille.

After Crush's Coaster⁽¹⁾, Cars Race Rally⁽²⁾ and Toy Story Playland⁽³⁾, Ratatouille will be the fourth attraction at the Walt Disney Studios Park inspired by a Disney•Pixar film. Disneyland Paris will once again combine its narration skills with state-of-the-art technology to offer the best possible experience.

Next summer, join us for Ratatouille: L'Aventure Totale de Rémy, only at Walt Disney Studios Park, Disneyland Paris.